

Privacy Notice – Parents and Carers Data

What is this Privacy Notice for?

Tannery Drift First School, as a data controller, is committed to protecting the privacy and security of personal information. We collect data and information about parents and carers of our pupils so that we can operate effectively as a school. This privacy notice explains how and why we collect parent and carer data, what we do with it, who we share it with and what rights parents have, in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR).

It is important that you read this privacy notice together with our detailed parent and carer privacy notice which contains more detailed information about our data processing and can be found on the school website.

Why do we collect and use parent / carer information?

We process information about parents and carers as part of our legal obligation to provide an education to our pupils, to support our function of running a school and for safeguarding purposes.

Where we process data not covered by these reasons, we will ask for your consent. This consent can be withdrawn at any time.

What parent / carer information do we collect, hold and share?

This will include personal information such as name, name, address, telephone number and email address. It could also include information relating to your identity, marital status, employment status, ethnicity, language, medical conditions and free school meal / pupil premium eligibility / entitlement to certain benefits, information about court orders in place affecting parenting arrangements for pupils. For more information on the types of data please see our detailed privacy notice on the school website.

How long do we keep the information?

We will only retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, insurance or reporting requirements, as recommended by both national and local guidelines. Certain types of data may be held for longer, e.g., safeguarding. For more information on the recommended timescales please see our detailed privacy notice on the school website.

Who do we share your information with?

We routinely share parent and carer information with schools that pupils attend after leaving us. We may share pupil information with the DfE, the Local Authority, and other bodies and organisations. We do not share information with anyone without consent unless the law or our policies allow us to do so. When we share personal data, we will provide the minimum amount necessary to fulfil the purpose for which it is required.

In certain circumstances, we may transfer, store and process your personal data outside the UK or European Economic Area.

For more details, please see our detailed privacy notice on the school website.

How can you request access to your personal data?

Parents and carers have the right to request access to information about them that we hold via a Subject Access Request (SAR). To make a request for your or your child's personal data, contact dpo@tannerydrift.herts.sch.uk. The legal timescales for the school to respond to a Subject Access Request is one calendar month. As the school has limited staff resources outside of term time, we encourage you to submit Subject Access Requests during term time and to avoid sending a request during periods when the school is closed or is about to close for the holidays, if possible. This will assist us in responding to your request as promptly and fully as possible. For further information about how we handle Subject Access Requests, please see our Data Protection Policy, which can be found on the school website.
